Happy Birthday

You know you're getting older when....
You remember life before the computer.

Memory was something you lost with age.
An application was for employment.
A program was a TV show.
A cursor used profanity.
A key board was a piano.
A virus was the flu.
The web was a spiders home.
A hard drive was a long trip on the road.
A mouse pad was where a mouse lived.
And if you had a 3 ½ inch floppy,
You just hoped nobody found out!
